VITAL RECORDS
OF
CAMBRIDGE
MASSACHUSETTS,
TO THE YEAR 1850.

VOLUME I. BIRTHS.

COMPILED BY THOMAS W. BALDWIN, A.M., S.B.A., MEMBER
OF THE NEW ENGLAND HISTORIC GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY.

BOSTON, MASS.,

1900.

EXPLANATIONS.

1. When places other than Cambridge or Massachusetts are named in the original records, they are given in the printed copy.

2. In all records the original spelling is followed.

3. The various spellings of a name should be examined, as items about the same family or individual may be found under different spellings.

4. Marriages are printed under the name of both parties. When a marriage appears without the intention recorded it is designated with an asterisk.

5. Additional information which does not appear in the original text of an item, i.e., any explanation, query, inference or difference shown in other entries of the record is bracketed.

6. In taking records from gravestones it is often the case that the family name of a woman is given on the stone is not that under which she was born, so therefore many names will appear under a married name instead of the original one which is not shown on the stone. Women are only mentioned as wives when they are so shown in the stone. In many cases names are evidently those of wives, though not so specified.

CAMBRIDGE.

In Massachusetts' records, Vol. I., page 9, under date of July 26, 1631, "Charlton, Misticke & the newe towne" are mentioned. March 6, 1632, the bounds were established between Charlestowne and Newtowne.

May 2, 1638, Massachusetts' records, Vol. I., page 228. "It is ordered that Newtowne shall hencefoward be called Cambridge."

March 13, 1639, the bounds between Cambridge and Watertown were established, and October 7, 1641, the bounds between Cambridge and Boston.

November 12, 1659, a grant of 1,000 acres of land was made to Cambridge, which was renewed October 19, 1664.

March 20, 1712, a part of Cambridge was established as the town of Lexington.

June 4, 1755, a part of Cambridge was annexed to Waltham.
